Summary: Hey,my name is seth and welcome...to my new school.

Wacky Adventures at wayside

Ages:

Todd-14

Maurecia-14

Dana-13

Seth-13 1/2

I stepped out of the bus and looked at the 30 story tall school before me with a baffled face.

''Couldn't they have made a straight stacking instead of one that could fall over any minute and kill hundreds of people?'' I asked myself,but shrugged and kept walking while looking at the sign ahead,''Wayside school?who names...oh.''

Just then,a girl with blue hair popped up in front of me.

''Hey,you must be the new kid!What's your name?'' She asked me.

''Uh...Seth.'' I replied and saw pencils fly down,barely missing me,''What the?''

''I'm Dana...it's science day,2016!'' She screamed with excitement,then laughed.

I looked at her with a confused face until she frowned at me.

''ENOUGH WITH THE FUN!'' She shouted.

''So...basically,you are testing the object's mass to see how fast it will drop form the earth's gravity?'' I asked Dana,who nodded,''Who else is here?''

I then saw a redhead walk over.

''Hey,Dana,who's this?'' the redhead asked.

''Todd,this is Seth...seth,this is todd.'' Dana said,then saw a roller-skating girl coming,''Oh,here she comes!''

The girl landed in front of us,then punched Todd in the arm.

''OW!Maurecia,why do you keep doing that?'' Todd asked the girl,who giggled.

''Because I love you,todd!'' Maurecia replied.

''Yes,well,if you punch your boyfriend in the arm,that means you take your love a bit too rough.'' I said and Maurecia frowned.

''I'm not too rough with him/she's not my girlfriend!'' Maurecia and todd said at the same time.

''Uhhh...yeahâ€¦.well,i'm in ms je-'' I started,but Dana interrupted.

''Ms Jewl's class is where we are gonna beâ€¦'' Dana said,then had a sad face,''Myron is gone!He left the school instead of coming back!''

Dana then cried and I felt bad for your best friend to another school would be sad..though i realized that he probably went to get better education.

''WAAAHHâ€¦.ENOUGH WITH THE SADNESS!'' Dana yelled.

''Wellâ€¦.uh...you suddenly seem to not care about your friend leaving.'' I said with a shrug

I can already tell this will not be a good school year.

Ms jewl's classroom

I walked inside with Dana,Maurecia and Todd as they walked to their desks.

''Guys,a new monkey is here!'' Ms Jewl said.

Considering that part of my family is black,I took offense to it.

''Hey,I take offense to that!'' I said.

''You want your banana?'' Ms jewl said and held out a banana,which I swatted with my hand,then walked to my desk.

''Now...today we are returning to learning about gravity.'' Ms jewl said and i gulped.

Everyone except todd cheered.

''Hey..todd...what do they mean?'' I asked him.

''Basically,they chuck anything they can find out the window and never pick it up..just to see how fast it will fall.'' Todd explained and my jaw dropped.

''Oh godâ€¦'' I said and Todd chuckled.

''It isn't that bad once you get used to-'' Todd began,but I punched him in the arm,''OW!Maurecia already does enough of that,I don't need you doing it too!''

''Dude,this isn't a game,people might get hurt if we don't be careful with the stuff we throw out!'' Seth said.

''No worries,pal.'' Todd said.

''No worries at all..''

My first attempt at a wayside fanfic and it did not turn out good :(

Also,Myron will be included in the fanfic,but in a later chapter,so stick around.
